Reports

1.0

1.1 Banquet;

- Still looking for a venue

1.2 Clinic (April/November) Barb;

- Only have 13 people interested in coming to the Gail Greenough clinic in April
- after discussion it was decided we do one last advertisement and if not enough response we will cancel
- Will contact Gail and see if she is available for the November clinic instead

1.3 Schooling Shows;

- 100 horses at the first Show
- Erin sent a letter to address the problem
- 74 horses at the second Show
- Both were very successful

1.4 Equipment;

- The new jumps have been paid for; cost $3,899, shipping will be with Wild Wood Transport at a cost between $500-$600, and they will be dropped off @ the Keystone, should be here by end of April.
- We have to increase the insurance on our jumps and that will cover them while being transported as well. Cindy will tend to this.
- Trailers; No report Tara absent, it was felt we should only purchase one at this point

Old Business

2.0

2.1

- Our post office box has been closed
- Discussion to keep our box, Tanis will tend to this
- Timers need to be removed from our insurance as we have none.

The next meeting to be held Apr 10@ 6:30pm at Thunderbird Bowl – Huggies Lounge
